✿ Weekly Roundup ✿

It has been wonderful to see our children looking so smart in their uniforms this week and creating such a positive learning atmosphere across school. We are excited to launch our new Dojo Shop, where pupils can earn prizes for excellent behaviour and effort. Our first girls' football fixture took place this week (Friday 12/9/25) huge well done to those girls that represented our school. Year 5 and Year 6 have also started their swimming lessons. Staff have shared lots of lovely comments about the fun and positive play taking place at lunchtimes – a great start to the term! Our school value for this half term is: Kindness

✿ Community Clean-Up Volunteers Needed ✿

At Phoenix Primary, we take great pride in our school building and environment, and we want our surroundings to reflect the same high standards. While Mr Peters works hard to keep our grounds clear, the area immediately around school has recently become more difficult to manage and is starting to look untidy.

We are hoping to assemble a small team of parent/carer volunteers to help us with a community clean-up. School will provide litter pickers and gloves, and together we can make the space around school something we can all be proud of.

If you can spare a little time a couple of mornings/afternoons a week to help, please contact the school office – your support would be hugely appreciated.

★ Wellbeing Tips/Tricks ★

“Breakfast really does make a difference! Children who eat a healthy breakfast are more focused, have better energy, and are ready to learn. Wholegrain cereal, fruit, or toast with a topping gives them the best start to the school day.”
